Are newspapers still relevant? Yes

- More trustworthy: These days, many electronic news channels have emerged that provide 24x7 news. Still, people prefer printed news in the form of a newspaper because it is a more trustworthy source. Once the news is published, it is not possible to modify or delete it. So, those who publish newspapers take great precautions while publishing news.
- Less Expensive: A newspaper is not very expensive; by spending 4-5 Rs. We can keep ourselves updated with all the news. Even one newspaper can be shared by many people. So, it costs very little.
- Complete Information: The newspaper is a complete source of information. We get a variety of news from one source. Newspapers, page by page, provide information about national news, international news, local news, economic news, sports news, and entertainment news. It helps us stay up-to-date with current affairs.
- Improves Language: Reading a newspaper increases our vocabulary and makes us good readers and speakers. Many people enhance their English reading and speaking skills by reading newspapers.
- Helps in forming opinions: Newspapers have a views section, also known as an editorial section. On this page, many writers express their opinions. We can read the expert opinion on any topic and enhance our knowledge.
- Readers can raise issues: The newspaper has a readers' section. In this section, we can write a letter or send an email to the newspaper and bring the issue to the government.
- Mind Games: There are several mind games, like Sudoku and crossword puzzles, also available in the newspaper.

- Government information: Governments also give important information in a newspaper. Which we can read and keep ourselves updated.
- Boon for rural areas: In rural areas, there is still an electricity shortage. So, watching the news on TV or on a mobile phone is impossible for them. So, still, they rely on newspapers.
- Easy to carry: Newspapers are lighter in weight; hence, they are easy to carry anywhere.
